Landon Yoshida has been promoted to principal and vice president of wealth management at Irvine-based Apriem Advisors. Yoshida started with Apriem in 2011 as a wealth manager. He leads the firm's Refinery Retiree Practice, which is fueled by current or soon-to-be retirees from ExxonMobil's refinery operation in Torrance, now Torrance Refining Co. Yoshida began this program a decade ago; it will be expanded to serve Southern California's growing population of retirees in the aerospace sector.
